

Evergreen Conservancy October 2010 Calendar Items

THIRD ANNUAL TANOMA CELEBRATION DAYS

Evergreen Conservancy will celebrate its new features at the Tanoma Wetlands Educational Center Saturday October 2nd beginning at 10 am. In 2010 we added a handicapped accessible trail, the StoryWalk “Grandfather Twilight”, and our alternative energy project consisting of a wind turbine, water power, and solar panels. There will be children’s games, Hot Dog John, systems walks explaining how iron is removed from AMD, and other nature walks. Directions from Indiana:: Take Route 286 East, Turn left on Tanoma Road, continue on Tanoma Road until you reach Rayne Church Road, turn left on Rayne Church Road, the educational center is on your right, there is a parking lot, there will be signs on the day of the event.

EVERGREEN CONSERVANCY MONTH AT INDIANA FREE LIBRARY

The conservancy will have displays of their activities during the month of October.

CONSERVE YOUR LAND FOR GENERATIONS

Mike Kozemchak, Western Pennsylvania Conservancy, will discuss how you can do exactly that Wednesday October 27th at 7 pm at the Indiana Free Library. Mike will explain how you can protect the conservation values of your land according to your wishes. There will be opportunity for questions.